Description of our Services

For registered performers (“Artists”), our Services facilitate your connection and interaction with music fans and venues in your area. We do this by aiding the ability of all users of the App (hereinafter, “Users”) to listen to and search for (together, “Discover”) your uploaded songs, videos, media and other information, as well as schedule and pay for (together, “Book”) you to perform live. GigTown is not an agent, employer, or partner of Artists and is not engaging in the services of a “Talent Agency” as defined in California Labor Code section 1700.4. GigTown simply acts as a platform allowing Artists to connect and interact with Users and the fee charged by GigTown is for the use of that platform. Each transaction will be subject to GigTown's applicable service charge and processing fee.

d. Volume levels. The User is responsible for ensuring that the volume levels during the Artist's performance are compliant with the Event Location's local noise ordinances. c. Damage to User's property. The Artist will not purposely or recklessly damage personal property of the User.

d. Communication with User. It is the responsibility of the Artist to ensure that the User will receive the desired live music experience. XIII. GigTown is not liable. If any of the terms listed above and agreed upon in regards to the binding contract between the User and Artist are violated, GigTown assumes no liability or responsibility of any kind whatsoever. GigTown accepts no liability for damages caused by Artist no-shows, late-shows, or cancellations. Furthermore, GigTown assumes no liability in disputes between the User and the Artist of any sort.

XIV. Violation of binding contract. If any of the terms agreed upon in the binding contract between the User and Artist are violated or inappropriate behavior has been displayed in the reasonable view and discretion of GigTown, we reserve the right to suspend or close the account of the party involved without warning, with or without refund. GigTown also reserves the right to disallow Artist payment for the performance.

XV. Dispute resolution. Please contact us at help@gigtown.com if you have any questions, issues, or concerns in regards to the User and Artist agreement and binding contract as outlined in the section above. As set forth in the section entitled Arbitration Exclusive Remedy, below, you agree to submit any dispute with GigTown to binding arbitration.

3. Going “Outside GigTown.” GigTown provides Users the contact info for Artists, and Users may call or email the artists to work out details. During the course of these conversations, if a User decides to contract with an Artist outside of GigTown, GigTown releases all responsibility related to the Artist and the Event, and the GigTown User-Artist Contract is not enforceable in any way.

Cancellation Policy

For Artists

1. No cancellation allowed. The Artist may not cancel a confirmed gig at any point.
2. If an Artist cancels a confirmed gig at any point:
 - a. GigTown will recommend replacement Artists for the User.
 - b. GigTown reserves the right to make cancellations negatively affect an Artist’s visibility in both Discovery and Booking modes.
 - c. Monitoring of cancellations, no-shows, late-shows. GigTown will keep track of all cancellations, no-shows (not showing up for confirmed gig that hasn’t been cancelled through GigTown), and late-shows (not ready to perform at scheduled gig start time.) Accumulation of these statistics may decrease the likelihood that the Artist will appear in Discovery and Booking. GigTown will strongly consider closing an Artist’s account upon the accumulation of more than 2 combined cancellations, no-shows, or late-shows.

For Users

1. Edits and modifications to request. Users may cancel, edit, or modify a gig request that has not been accepted by the Artist at any point.
2. Not within 7 days. Users may not cancel a confirmed gig within 7 days of the event date and time. This means that gigs booked within 7 days of the event date and time may not be cancelled.
3. Not within 30 days if payment exceeds $999. Users may not cancel a confirmed gig within 30 days of the event date and time if the total fee to be charged to the User is greater than $999. This means that gigs booked within 30 days of the event date and time with a total fee of $1,000 or greater may not be cancelled.

4. Cancelling. In order to cancel a gig, Users must email help@GigTown.com requesting the cancellation, or Users may utilize the “Report a Problem” button within the App.

5. If conditions not met. If Users do not follow the conditions of our cancellation policy, they will be charged the full booking fee for the originally agreed-upon event. Violations of our cancellation policy will be tracked and visible to the artist upon receiving a booking request.

For Both Users and Artists

1. Extenuating circumstances

In the case of extenuating circumstances that cause a User or Artist to violate our Cancellation Policy, please email us at help@gigtown.com. GigTown will use our best and most reasonable judgment in these cases to come to fair solution for all parties involved.

2. Other Compensation and Modifications

Users and Artists may agree to other compensation or modifications to GigTown’s standard User-Artist contract by agreement in writing via the GigTown app and platform. Messages outside the GigTown app and platform will not be considered an addendum or modification to the standard contract.

Payment

1. Credit card information

Users’ Credit card information is required to complete a booking request. Credit card information will be collected, but the card will not be charged until the cancelation policy takes effect. This means that an event with a total budget $1,000 or greater will be charged in full 45 days prior to the event, and an event under $1,000 in budget will be charged 14 days prior. In the event a credit card cannot be provided as payment information, GigTown may utilize other payment methods that ensure the Artist's compensation within a reasonable timeframe from the successful completion of a gig.

2. Reception of payment

The User's card will be charged and the artist will receive the payment upon the completion of the transfer of funds, which may take up to 3 days.

3. "Free" gigs

Although credit card information is collected, Users will not be charged for "Free" gigs.

4. Violation of Cancellation Policy

If a User violates our Cancellation Policy, the User's card will still be charged and the Artist will be paid at the time of completion of the originally agreed-upon event.

5. Additional performance time for Artists

Please reference the section above procedures regarding payment to Artist for extending performance duration.

I. Application License. Subject to your compliance with the Terms, GigTown grants you a limited non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable license to download, install and use our App on a single mobile device or computer that you own or control and to run such copy of the App solely for your own personal use. Furthermore, with respect to any App accessed through or downloaded from the Apple App Store (an “App Store Sourced Application”), you will only use the App Store Sourced Application (i) on an Apple-branded product that runs the iOS (Apple’s proprietary operating system) and (ii) as permitted by the “Usage Rules” set forth in the Apple App Store Terms of Service.

II. App Stores. You acknowledge and agree that the availability of the App and our Services is dependent on the third party from whom you received the App license, e.g., the Apple iPhone or Android app stores (in either case, “App Store”). You acknowledge that these Terms are between you and GigTown and not with the App Store. GigTown, not the App Store, is solely responsible for the our Services, including the App, the content thereof, maintenance, support services, and warranty therefor, and addressing any claims relating thereto (e.g., product liability, legal compliance or intellectual property infringement). In order to use the App, you must have access to a wireless network, and you agree to pay all fees associated with such access. You also agree to pay all fees (if any) charged by the App Store in connection with our Services. You agree to comply with, and your license to use the App is conditioned upon your compliance with, all applicable third-party terms of agreement (e.g., the App Store’s terms and policies) when using our Services. You acknowledge that the App Store (and its subsidiaries) are third-party beneficiaries of these Terms and will have the right to enforce them.

III. Accessing and Download the Application from iTunes. The following applies to any App Store Sourced Application:

- a. You acknowledge and agree that (i) the Terms are concluded between you and GigTown only, and not Apple, and (ii) GigTown, not Apple, is solely responsible for the App Store Sourced Application and content thereof. Your use of the App Store Sourced Application must comply with the App Store Terms of Service.
- b. You acknowledge that Apple has no obligation whatsoever to furnish any maintenance and support services with respect to the App Store Sourced Application.
- c. In the event of any failure of the App Store Sourced Application to conform to any applicable warranty, you may notify Apple, and Apple will refund the purchase price for the App Store Sourced Application to you and to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Apple will have no other warranty obligation whatsoever with respect to the App Store Sourced Application. As between GigTown and Apple, any other claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses attributable to any failure to conform to any warranty will be the sole responsibility of GigTown.
- d. You and GigTown acknowledge that, as between GigTown and Apple, Apple is not responsible for addressing any claims you have or any claims of any third party relating to the App Store Sourced Application or your possession and use of the App Store Sourced Application, including, but not limited to: (i) product liability claims; (ii) any claim that the App Store Sourced Application fails to conform to any applicable legal or regulatory requirement; and (iii) claims arising under consumer protection or similar legislation.
- e. You and GigTown acknowledge that, in the event of any third-party claim that the App Store Sourced Application or your possession and use of that App Store Sourced Application infringes that third party's intellectual property rights, as between GigTown and Apple, GigTown, not Apple, will be solely responsible for the investigation, defense, settlement and discharge of any such intellectual property infringement claim to the extent required by these Terms.

f. You and GigTown acknowledge and agree that Apple, and Apple's subsidiaries, are third-party beneficiaries of these Terms as related to your license of the App Store Sourced Application, and that, upon your acceptance of the terms and conditions of these Terms, Apple will have the right (and will be deemed to have accepted the right) to enforce these Terms as related to your license of the App Store Sourced Application against you as a third-party beneficiary thereof.

g. Without limiting any other terms of these Terms, you must comply with all applicable third-party terms of agreement when using the App Store Sourced Application.
